MIRRISBURG, June 15.-Important parges in the forces of the State High-Department were announced today commissioner Cunningham. Thomas nord, of Fittaburgh, is removed from place of registrar of the automobile min, and George M. Brusstar, of adalphia, is appointed to succeed Allen C. Frankel, of Fittsburgh, the appointment of Ardie Steel, of the appointment of Ardie Steel, of the appointment of Ardie Steel, of the appointment of Brusstar will relieve a year, while Steel will get Both appointments were made on accommendation of Governor Bruss. endation of Governor Brum-

L Robbins, assistant engineer in age of the district comprising Beaver, removed and Alleghany Counties, removed and S. W. Jackson, in the district of Bradford, Cambridge of the district of Bradford, Cambridge Counties, has been placed in charge by a district. The years of the district of the counties of the counties has been placed in charge by a district. mabins' district. The vacancy is filled the promotion of J. S. Ritchey, county existendent in Sulfivan County, to the meintendent in Sullivan County, to the set of assistant engineer. Ritchey is used in charge of Jackson's district. R Mason has been appointed county entired to fill the vacancy caused litchey's promotion.

In the comprising Berks, Carbon, the county is a set of the comprising Berks, Carbon, the country is a set of the comprising Berks, Carbon, the country is placed in charge of John T. Lebat, Jr., who succeeds G. C. Lansabeim, removed.

genterm. removed.

George W. Deaves, of Delaware County, is appointed superintendent of that smally to fill the vacancy caused by the signation of A. A. Sellers. B. F. Dively has been named to succeed E. I. Covesty as superintendent of Bradford County C. E. Myers succeeds Robert Black superintendent of Westmoreland bindent of Alleghany County, and W. A. Diler has been named as superintendent of Berks County.

OVERBROOK IGNORED IN "SMOKE" HEARING

Unrepresented at Councils' Committee Meeting to Consider Freight Yard Problem.

overbrook citizens, who are opposing to plan of the Pennsylvania Railroad senablish a freight yard in their neighwhood "to perpetuate the smoke nuissee," had no peresentation at the accurre session of Councils Subcommit-ies a Steam Railroads held in City Hall elay. They were not invited.
Harry J. Trainer, Select Councilman of a Third Ward, and chairman of the chesmittee, summoned E. B. Temple, a the Pennsylvania Railroad, and Chief Rooge S. Webster, of the Survey Buman to the meeting that was held behad closed doors. the Webster represented the interests the Overbrook residents as well as as ordinance now in committee would allow the railroad company to establish is yard if completely electrified and with the stipulation that no steam-driven The Overbrook residents also want a sprison included that no repair shops lat might produce smoke may ever be rated in the yard. To that provision to Pennsylvania officials object.

latermation was received at the submok residents refuse to be ignored, and that if an ordinance is framed that does set meet their views they will have miniments offered when the bill is rewife in the legislative branches. Chiens from Overbrook who have furth the snoke nulsance for years in-cide: Former Governor Edwin S. Stu-

an former Mayor John Weaver, former knater John J Coyle, Alexander Simp-Scator John J Coyle, Alexander Simp-It is not likely that the matter will be smiled before Councils adjourns for the immer recess, and consequently the proposition will likely remain at a stand-

MAD PRISONERS FIGHT IN COURTROOM CAGE

"Pal" That Turned State's Evidence Viciously Attacked by Three Former Friends.

Two prisoners confined in the cage in

Carter Sessions Court startled the Judge

and caused a commotion in the courttoday by picking a fight with other maners and turning the inside of the distinto a small-sized arena. The fight strated because three men in the cage to the distinct of the cage three men in the cage to the distinct of the cage to th ce against them. He is Thomas make against them. He is Thomas strike, recently sentenced in other is to terms aggregating II years. The morning he was put on the stand mag the trial of John Smith, accused larceny, and though rejuctant to testifically revealed some secrets of suit's tareer, under questioning by Assembly to the stander of the court official led him from the stand and started has direction of the cage. The man ted him from the stand and started its direction of the cage. The man trust whom he had testified was inside it with three others that were implicated. It is the door closed Smith and Frank scarce, members of the gang, jumped it leritage and rushed him to the floor the cage. Other prisoners joined in least smoment later the inside of the cage it transfermed into a flying mass of the and arms. It took ten tipstaves to test them.

spolated Judge Advocate of G. A. R. *SET CHESTER, Pa., June 15 .- C. M. mander, elected last week at Easton tha annual Department convention, appointed C. W. Talbot, of West tier, a member of General George Adali, Post No. 31, as Department Advocate for Pennsylvania for ensuing term. Mr. Talbot is the first member of the G. A. R. in this lip and probably in the State. He is, State Department Grand Army is and probably in the State. He is, attorney of experience and well-fitted is he office.

thone or Write for Samples the beautiful fabrics put into our shirts our shirts our sucrantes to hi.

MADRAS SHIRTS $10 to Your Order 28 classhers. Phone Walnut 49-11 COULTER, 710 Chestnut St.

ARTIFICIAL LIMBS

BRIEF CITY-WIDE NEWS

SENDS $2 TO CITY'S CONSCIENCE FUND

Philadelphia's "conscience fund" was swelled today by the addition of a $2 bill sent by an unknown penitent. It was addressed to the chief of the water rent division of the Department of the Receiver of Taxes with a scrap of paper containing the words "conscience fund." Chief Frank Willard, of the department, said that the sender had evidently avoided payment for a water appliance, and that if it is discovered by an inspector the sender will probably have to pay again.

EQUAL FRANCHISE SOCIETY HOLDS RECEPTION

The Equal Franchise Society held a reception and meeting in the Kensington Suffrage Shop, 2602 Kensington avenue, this afternoon. Mothers in that section attended. The meeting was held in the interests of further organization among the women of Kensington. Mrs. Anna Lowenburg, vice president of the society, was the principal speaker. Miss Anna McCue, organizer for the Kensington Legislative District, presided. The hostesses were Mrs. Ella Guthrle, Mrs. Mary Godward and Mrs. Agnes Mellon.

WOMAN TURNS IN ALARM, THEN PUTS OUT FIRE

Mrs. Joseph Sorg, 231 West Girard avenue, discovering a fire in her huspand's shop, at the same address, today, telephoned an alarm to the Electrical Bureau, phoned to a nearby engine company, asked a friend to pull a fire alarm box, then went back to the blaze and put it out with a fire extinguisher. Sorg has a mattress factory and store. When he was operating a picking machine an electrical spark generated in it threw a spark from a needlelike "picker," which ignited a quantity of cotton. The blaze was spectacular, but did little damage.

BRILL COMPANY WINS BIG WAR ORDERS

Contracts said to run into several million dollars for war munitions for the Russian Government have been received by the J. G. Brill Company. New machinery is being installed to facilitate the delivery of shells and equipment,

GREAT SHIPYARD AT CHESTER PLANNED

A large shippard, at which merchant vessels, submarines and other ships for the United States navy, and to employ 1500 men, is planned by New York capitalists, to be established at the eastern end of the Roach shippard, at

FATALITIES AND CASUALTIES

MARINE DIES AFTER WEST CHESTER HIKE

C. M. Pearson, a member of the Second Regiment of the League Island Marine Corps, died in the Naval Hospital after being taken ill last week on the hike to West Chester. Pearson collapsed about four miles from West Chester on the return march. At the Naval Hospital it was said he died of peritonitis.

AGED WOMAN COLLAPSES ON STREET

An aged woman collapsed from weakness early today at 26th and Dauphin streets. She was found by Policeman Crosson, of the 26th and York streets station, and was sent to the Philadelphia Hospital. She is believed to be Jane Walker, 80 years old, of 2139 North 11th street. She explained that she started to take a short walk last night and became lost. The police are trying to find her relatives or friends.

CHILD RUN OVER BY WOMAN DOCTOR'S AUTO

Eight-year-old James McMenamin, 2706 Dauphin street, was run down and injured in front of his home by an automobile driven by Dr. Grace Kimbrough, a Negress. The woman, who was answering a hurry call from one of her patients, carried the child to the Women's Homeopathic Hospital. The child has concussion of the brain. Doctor Kimbrough was held under $400 bail for a further hearing.

DERRICK KILLS MAN

A collapsing derrick killed George Schneider, 55 years old, in the stone yard of William Drew, in the rear of 5614 Germantown avenue. Schneider, who is a carpenter and lives at the yard, tried to swing the derrick around unassisted from the roof of a shanty when it fell and crushed him. He died in the Germantown Hospital. A search is being made for Schneider's wife and two daughters, who live near the city.

COCAINE VICTIM DIES AFTER TAKING OVERDOSE

One of the first persons in the city to ask for treatment to cure her of the cocaine habit after the Harrison act cutting off the supply of narcotics went into effect died today of an overdose of cocaine. She was Mrs. Florence Mead, of 433 North 10th street. Where she got the cocaine is a mystery, Mrs. Mead was found dead in the bathtub at the house by another woman, who boarded there.

THIS ITALIAN WARS ON FLOWER BEDS

Unlike his countrymen who left for Italy to fight the Austrians, Vincenio Alexandria, of 347 East Rittenhouse street, was arrested today for warring on flower beds. He was about to enter his home with rose bushes piled high in his arms when he met William Farmer, a private watchman. The police believe that he has attacked many flower beds in Germantown, numerous complaints of which have reached the station house. Alexandria was held in $500 bail for a further hearing on June 17 by Magistrate Wrigley, in the Germantown avenue and Lycoming street station.

MAN ACCUSED OF USING MAILS TO THREATEN BROTHER

Louis K. Nash, 39 years old, 5215 Reinhard street, was arrested today by Postal Inspector Wynne and Detective Boyer and held to answer the charge of using the mails to threaten the life of his brother. He had a hearing today before United States Commissioner Long, who held him in $1000 bail.

WIFE MURDERER HELD WITHOUT BAIL FOR COURT

Lawrence Franklin, 33 years old, a Baltimore Negro, who shot and killed his wife in her home at 1014 Naudain street yesterday, was held without ball to await the action of the Coroner by Magistrate Beaton in Central Station, today. Police witnesses testified that Franklin said he had come from Baltimore for the express purpose of killing his wife.

AUTO BREAKS LEG OF CHILD

Marie McGarry, 8 years old, of 404 West Cambria street, was run over and seriously injured today by an automobile at 4th street and Lehigh avenue. She was removed to the Episcopal Hospital, suffering from Internal injuries and a fracture of the right leg. The machine was operated by Joseph Dean, of 1430 North Delhi street. He was arrested and held for a further hearing by Magistrate Beaton.

POSTAL EFFICIENCY MOVE

Changes Made at Camden to Centralize and Improve Service.

Several changes in the working order of the Camden Postoffice will go into effect the Camden Postoffice will go into effect early tomorrow morning on direct orders from the Postmaster General in Washington. The measures, known as efficiency measures, will tend to centralize the work. Postmaster Harry Knight will have direct charge of the division of mail, and the postmaster's first assistant, Charles Sayrs, will head the finance department, including the money order division. Thomas E. Simpson, also assistant to the postmaster, will be in charge of the delivery work, including parcel post and registry, Harry Husted will be in charge of the city delivery, and Thomas E. Elliot will head delivery, and Thomas E. Elliot will head the night department.

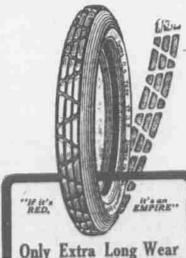

Man's Body Found in Chester River CHESTER, Pa., June 15.—While walking along the bank of Chester River today. Edward Goff, Jacob Pike, and George Bonner found the body of an unidentified man. He was well dressed and about 50 years old.

Attractive Gifts Beautiful pieces of sterling silver appropriate for wedding gifts at a price range of $1.50 to $25.00. SMITH MARKET

SINCE 1837

Cool Clothes

1116 Walnut Custom.

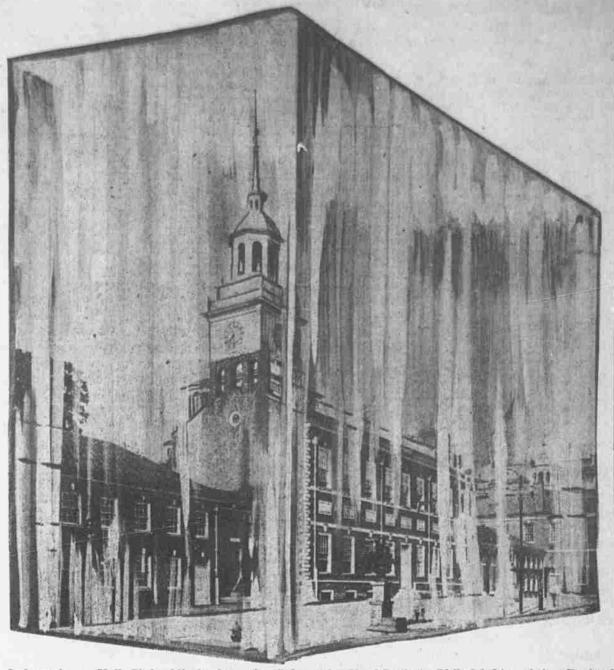

Only Extra Long Wear Conquers Empire REDS

Because they're better made of better rubber Empire REDS are better rubber Empire REDS are not susceptible to common tire troubles. Empire REDS don't decay or rot. Their buoyancy and strength lasts long after free sulphur has sapped the life from gray tires. There is no sulphur in Empire REDS. They don't blow out or give gut—they must be worn out. By the time they wear out much of your mileage is on vertex.

Ask your dealer about them Fmpire lires

EMPIRE RUBBER & TIRE CO. 322 North Broad Street Paster and Home Office: TRENTON, M. J. Habers of "Furtier" Sod Subber Innor Tubes

KEEP COOL, EVERYBODY, THERE'S PLENTY OF ICE STORED AWAY THIS SUMMER

Independence Hall Sinks Nicely Into the Cube of Ice Used Daily in Philadelphia-A few Decimal Points About Ice-And a Hint of Prices as They May Be.

Independence Hall once produced mough heat to fire the 13 colonies to that mough heat to fire the 13 colonies to that and petered out from the bottom the remainder of the day, would form an immense block with a volume of approximately 130,863 cubic feet. A cubic feet—of ice this summer.

Dealers throughout the city state that the historic building is not believe these figures, take a half day off the rest of the storehouses stocked the storehouse storeh United States. On sundry other occasions it was the storage house for a great deal of warmth, meteorological as well as po-litical. But the historic building is not large enough for one purpose. It couldn't hold the ice that sweltering Philadel-phians used to keep the butter from overflowing and the "imbiberies" going yesterday.

Old Independence Hall, even with the aid of Congress Hall, falls far short of the necessary room.

Philadelphia used approximately 20,000 tons of ice yesterday. In terms of what the housekeeper buys meat by, this amounts to something in the neighbor-hood of 44,800,000 pounds of water thou wast to water returning. For those who find enjoyment in jug-ging with decimal points and other mathematical marks, this ice which went into the tops of ordinary iceboxes and

DETEC-A-TIVES ON PICNIC

150 Real and Near Sleuths Off for Riverview Beach.

All the detec-a-tives and acting detecsemetimes nearly as good as real detec-a-tives, are on a picnic, 150 of them, in-cluding Director Porter and the high and mighty officials of the Bureau of Police, who are past masters in the art of detec-

They took the steamboat Queen Anne at Arch street and went to Riverview Eeach. There will be some baseball game today, at Riverview, for every one of the 150 sleuths is to be given a chance to play.

Detective Andrew Knox will wrestle with John Hart, Janitor. Knox is the tallest and best built detective in the city and the best wrestler. He is even a good detective, too. He is 5 feet 5 inches and Hart is 5 feet 6 inches. Tom Harbridge will box John Pinkerton.

There will also be a test of the detectives' ability to locate the elusive clam and put him under permanent arrest.

dependence Hall, counting the main building and both wings, together with Congress Hall, has a total volume of 488,025 cubic feet. That is to say, these buildings could hold only a little more than half of the ice consumed in this city yesterday. There would be in the neighborhood of 315,000 cubic feet still left to be sheltered. Independence Hall, with its abutments, taken twice, and Congress Hall would just about hold the ice used.
All these figures are interesting for the men. But the figure the women are inmen. But the figure the women are in- day's trade. GET MISSING MAN'S PAPERS yourself.

Wanamaker & Brown

Add 500 New Suits to

Their Great June Sale!

REPRESENTING the finest we could find in the stocks of two makers who

All Good, New Summer Suits!

All the Suits Worth $15 and $18.00 $10.00

All the Suits Worth $20 and $22.50 $12.50

All the Suits Worth $25 and $27.50 $17.50

All the Suits Worth $30 and $35.00 $21.50

Confidence is the touchstone of big business and Oak Hall is doing the biggest

Wanamaker & Brown

Market at Sixth for 54 Years

Men's Clothing business in town these days.

they received immediate cash.

All the Suits Worth $10 and $12 Selling for ......

Selling for ......

Selling for .....

Selling for .....

Selling for .....

came to us and accepted a loss because Packet Mailed in New York Belongs to Orlando C. Berry.

The receipt of several personal papers a-tives and special policemen, who are of Orlando Crease Berry, of Roxborough, who disappeared from Burlington bank, has caused detectives investigating the case to turn their attention to New York, from which place the papers were mailed. The papers were received at the office of the Berry-Goodwin Company, 134 South 4th atreet, and were immediately turned over to the police. If turned over to the police.

Relatives of the missing man believe that he has been seized with an attack of mental aberration due to overwork, and that he has gone to New York. In the hope of finding him there the detectives are looking for an architect of that city named W. H. Pelton, with whom Berry had business dealings. Detectives are beginning to abandon their original belief that Berry met with four play.

there is practically no chance that ice prices will soar this year. The late sea-son has kept the storehouses stocked full, and as a result there is almost an oversupply on hand. The only chance for an increase in price will be if the summer last long and if there is continued excessive heat. In other words, Philadelphians will be able to afford to keep cool this summer. One dime will have a result to the summer of the summer of the summer. One dime will have a result to the summer of the summer. One dime will have a result to the summer of the summer of the summer. The summer of the summe the next time the thermometer flirts with the 90-degree mark and work it out for The magnitude of these figures can best be realized by a vivid comparison. In-dependence Hall, counting the main buildbuy 25 pounds—less than half a cubic foot—of ice.

Philadelphia ice plants have a productive capacity of more than 3700 tons of ice a day. On hot days, such as yesterday, between 15,000 and 20,000 tons more are brought in from outside plants. The winter is spent storing up the ice and in summer the ice received is used to re-plenish what has been used up in the Eight Couples on Honeymoon Express ELKTON, Md., June 15.-Eight couples journeyed to Elkton this morning and registered their names to the increasing number of marriages daily taking place in the town. They were John J. Haughly and Elizabeth Hasson, Matthew A. McComb and Irene Sims, Oscar Gacrke and Emma Karasch, Gerian T. Covella and Etta Greenberg, all of Philadelphia; Henry Poindexter and Mary M. Carter, West Grove; James F. Blackwell and Margaret E. Holt, Mahanoy City, Pa; Ira L. Reed and Fanny J. Kichline, Harrington, Del.; Gerald D. Smith, Pleasant-ville, and Reva A. Armstrong, North-field, N. J.

Caricola wonderful tea for icing

With the coming of the hot weather, the question of the summer drink confronts us. I ced tea, of course, we must havethen why not Iced Caricol? For Caricol is the icing tea par excellence. Its min-gling of seven selected tea growths is admirably suited to icing—not only in its wonderfully delicious taste, but also in its cooling, refreshing quality. Not all teas are good when iced. for even some of the highest priced blends have an unpleasant herby taste when served cold. Caricol has that good tangy taste that makes it most delightful in the tall glazed glass. Serve it at meals or between meals in hot weather, you will find it cooling and refreshing-always delightful-and a tea of a price that you may serve often.

34c lb.; 5 lbs., $1.60

Saludo Coffee a home standby

Like an old friend, Saludo is of that quality that endears itself to you the longer you know it. That's because Saludo is uniformly good and satisfying. When once you know Saludo you will not be satisfied with ordinary coffee, for there is no other like it at anywhere near the price. 29c lb.; 4 lbs., $1.12

Thos. Martindale & Co. 10th & Market

Ratabilehed to 1869. Bell Phones—Filbert 2010, Filbert 2074 Heystone—Have 200, Roce 200

KIDDIES FROM CITY SEE GREEN FIRLDS

Country Week Association Takes Children and Tirol Mothers for Rural Vacation.

Some day everything will be hright and jolly for children at all times, as it was surely meant to be; but in the mean time such a praiseworthy organisation as the Children's Country Wesk Association does the best It can to inject a few Blats spots of pleasure into their sould little

A sight to warm the cockies of the veriest cynic's heart took place this morning when 75 youngaiers assembled. palpitant and joyous, at 7:30 o'clock outside the doors of the association's office at 1602 Arch street. At $100 they were divided into three lots, just little hors, just ittle girls and mothers with their babies. And part of them via the Paradise Special and part of them via the motorbus were conveyed to the three country places, Greystone Lodge, at Want Chester, for the girls; Mill Rouse, at Newtown Square, for the boys, and Bellevue for mothers and their wee 16th, for a two weeks' vacation.

"Hey St." screamed one little shaver in the shrill tones of ecstsay that can-not be restrained, "You over been out before?"

St shook his head languidly. His eyes Bi shook his head languidly. His eyes shone bright with anticipated pleasure, but Bi had just come from the hospital and in view of his wan-pinched face, penciled with dark blue veins, its must be forgiven if he didn't show the proper amount of enthusiasm that such an expedition would seem to justify. Look at Si two weeks from now after he has experienced the country joys of Mill House and you will see an example of the best work done by the Country Week Association.

tion,
Long before Mrs. E. Boyd Weitzel arrived to "open up" the happy vacationists began to arrive. One of the first to get there was Mrs. Herman Strecher, of 513 North 43d street during 56 weeks of the year, but of Bellevue for the other glorious two. Mrs. Streeter brought with her six children ranging in ages from 2 to 13 her six children ranging in ages from $\begin{align*}{l}$ to 15. The family had never been separated before, and now two of the boys too old to ge to the mother's farm were to be sent to Mill House, two girls to the Lodge and the mother with 1-year-old Tommy was going to do what she could in the way of acquiring a new lease on life at Bellevue. Torn between an uncontrolable desire to be off on their glorious vacation and the uncertain feeling of being separated from mamma for the first time in their lives, the four older youngsters alternately chortled with give and tugged at the maternal skirts with a strange madness.

"The children ain't never been away from me before," Mrs. Streeher said anxlously, "but I know it's going to do them good, and they'll have so much to think about they won't get time to miss me."

be held Thursday afternoon. He will be buried in West Laurel Hill Cemetery. Mr. Mees was a son of the late Harry J. Mees, who 20 years ago organized several bakeries in this city. Mr. Mees was a member of the Manufacturers Club, Cheives Tacht Club and Stephen Girard Lodge No. 450, F. A. M. He is survived by a widow and one daughter.

Archbishop Langevin Dies MONTREAL, June 15. — Archbishep Laugevin, of St. Boniface, died here today in Hotel Dieu Hospital.

Palm Beach Summer Suits for Sensible Men

Palm Beach cloth is the Suit-fabric worn by men of the semi-tropical Southern U. S. from the first to the last of the warm sea-

Palm Beach is a porous, crisp, semi-lustrous, dustresisting and washable fabric. It will launder and make up like a linen handkerchief.

I It is woven in a variety of shades and patterns that offer a wide choice for every taste-a soft cream color; gray; blue and black with pin stripes, etc.

I No man seeking comfort during the frequent and often long-enduring spells of torrid Philadelphia weather will be without a Palm Beach Suit this summer. $10 for cost and trousers.

PERRY&CO.

"N. B. T."

16th & Chestnut Str.